

Marcus Connect, The Hague, Netherlands (Protestant Church in the Netherlands) “the congregation making connections in surprising places”

THINKING ABOUT:
making connections in surprising places

WATCH THE VIDEO and as you do ask:

- What is surprising about this story of Marcus Connect in The Hague?
- Where is church taking place in the story, what does church look like?
- What connections with the community does the Marcus Connect community make?

DIGGING DEEPER Read Acts 16:13-15

Acts 16:13-15 is the account of Paul in Philippi where in trying to find a place to pray meet Lydia and other women. Paul shares the good news of Jesus Christ with them and they are open to hear and come to faith.

- What is surprising about the story from Acts?
- How was Paul open to the leading of the Spirit in Acts 16?

MOVING FORWARDS: So now think about how this could apply in your context

- What connections might you make with your community to reach out in new ways?
- What surprising places is God already at work in your community?
- How does reaching out in mission help us understand ourselves better?